Liberal Party of Canada calling Tuxedo Stan! Could there be a future for him in Ottawa?

Scandal rocks Tuxedo Party!

Popular candidate in the HRM mayoral race, Tuxedo Stan, has been served with a paternity suit. The suit alleges that he fathered a litter of kittens by Bella, a tortoiseshell stray from the North End.

The two kittens (one male, one female) are safe in foster care while the details of the case are investigated. It is not yet clear where/if the tryst occurred, but Party supporters are watching closely.

Tuxedo Stan unavailable for comment

The opposition says some things can't be swept under the rug!!

While Tuxedo Stan himself was unavailable for comment, his team vigorously denied Bella's allegation and are confident the suit will be dropped. The Tuxedo Party's election platform – the need for affordable spay/neuter – is the foundation of their campaign. Tuxedo Stan has previously stated on Twitter "I'm neutered and I'm proud of it. Testicles are overrated."

Are these Stan's love children?

Stan's campaign song – Life Gets Better by Don Amero – has become an anthem to those who work day and night to rescue cats in need. Life will get better for the cats in HRM – vote wisely to make Tuxedo Stan's vision a reality !!
